

Welcome

Spirit Communications finalized today the acquisition of SCANA Communications, Inc. ("SCI"). You will see no interruption in service or price change as Spirit is committed to delivering high quality communication and technology services. We have a long heritage of service in the Southeast – And we pride ourselves in providing unparalleled customer support.

The service you selected will now be provided over our private managed network to assure you a level of security and performance to enhance your business services. To that end, our network operation center in Columbia monitors your connection 24 hours a day and we are happy to welcome you to the Spirit Communications family.

Once again,
thank you

Grey Humphrey
